

BAN REMAINS ON HIGHER RAIL FARE

State Supreme Court Declines to Vacate Injunction Against 61 Roads.

HEARING TO BE RESUMED

Delay Asked Until Right of Interstate Commerce Commission Is Shown.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Justice Gilbert D. B. Hasbrouck of the State Supreme Court declined today to vacate an injunction obtained by the State restraining sixty-one railroads from increasing their intrastate passenger rates 20 per cent., as provided for by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.
The rates were to have gone into effect November 22. A hearing on the facts as set forth in the petition for the injunction will be held here next Saturday.

Edward G. Griffin, Deputy Attorney-General, assisted in presenting the State's case. He asked that present rates be permitted to continue in effect until the question of the authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix intrastate rates in New York is determined by the United States Supreme Court.

Upon final adjudication of the case will depend whether control of railroads within the State is to pass from the State to Washington, which would be the case should it be decided that all intrastate rates must be at least as high as those fixed for interstate commerce.

Ledyard P. Hale of Albany, counsel for the Public Service Commission, Second district, told the court that the issue involved was whether rates fixed by the Director-General of Railroads, acting under wartime authority, had ceased, and if so, whether rates are now to be determined by State laws or the Public Service Commission.

In presenting the case of the carriers, Charles C. Paulding, representing the New York Central Railroad, opposed the State's efforts to make permanent the restraining order. He maintained that the Public Service Commission could enforce its decision by mandamus proceeding, and that the Federal Government had supreme power in prescribing and controlling both interstate and intrastate rates, when these are in conflict with those set by the Interstate Commerce Commission.
